is a soldier's family in one of the Wards of this city, that spont two of the coldest days of last week without a particle of fuel. The family consists of the mother and three small children. A portion of the time they were without food, and the father at the front, fighting in defense of our property and our liberties.

Such a statement ought to bring the blush of shame to the cheek of every man and every woman. Men and brethern, these things must not be. Let us inaugurate some practical method at once whereby such cases cannot possibly occur.

THE HOPPMAN'S GRAND CONCERT .- WO igain call the attention of our readers to the above splendid concert which takes place next Monday evening. But seldom do Madame Varian dad Mr. Hoffman fa. yor na with their delicious music and when they do, it is the duty of all who love the Art to see that their visit to our city is such that we can insure their return. Such a singer as Madame Varian and a pianist as Hoffman are not traveling, and we shall he greatly disappointed if the Hall is not crowded to its utmost capacity next Monday evening.

The reserved seats have already been ery generally taken, and as the people understand the rights appertaining to the pre-occupation of sents by reservation, there can be no doubt that everything will pass off pleasantly.

Board of Supervisors.

PRIDAY, Nov. 18, 1861.

Editors Guzette .- According to a resolution of the Board on Thursday the Supervisors met at the office of the Clerk of the Board for the purpose of visiting the County Poor Farm. Between the hours of nine and ten A. M., Superintendent Atwood arrived with teams and carriages for the purpose of conveyance. After a rough but THE REBEL ANXIETY ABOUT HIM pleasant ride they arrived at the farm at twelve o'clock, when they found that the Sheriff and Chairman of the Board had arrived, without accident. After a pleasant chat in the parlor of the County house, and a short session of the Committee on Wolf Bounties, at which they came to the conclusion that the mother of certain wolves caught in the town of Johnstown was a fox after a chick; the members in a oody took a general survey of the premises and inmates, all of which they found to be n the best condition.

Especial mention should be made in reference to the condition of the paupers, which were with a few exceptions, in good health, and all were comfortably and cleanly clad. The house from cellar to garret was in perfect order. After this examination Mr. Pickett the Superintendent in charge of the house announced dinner. which in justice to Mrs. Pickett who superintended the serving of the same, was pronounced sumptious by all and served n the best of style.

After dinner the board took a general survey of the farm and stock, which they found in good condition, showing the wisdom and economy of the county poor commissioners in employing W. A. Pickett and lady to superintend the house and form. At 4 o'clook p. m., teams were in rendiness and we started for the city arriving at the Myers house at 6 p. m. after a very pleasant trip to the members, and we hope profitable one to the county. We could not but feel well pleased with the manner of conducting the affairs of the county, in the county poor department, and the men having charge of the same.

SATURDAY, SOV.19, 1864.

Shall We Have Peace? Now that the Pres'dential election is over and past and there being no longer sury good reasons that the animosities which it engendered should be continued. the more soher minded of both political parties are easting about them for those things that make for peace. The Union convention met at Bultimore on the 7th of June last, and a minuted Mr. Lincoln upon a platform which seemed to the delegates composing that convention, to be eminently sound and patriotic, and well suit ed to meet the exigencies of these truly perilous times. On the 29th of August, the democratic convention was held in Chicago, and General McClellan placed upon a platform which was believed to contain the practical wisdom needed to carry the shin of state away from the rocks and shoals that threaten her with destruction, out into the open sea of initional peace and prosperity. A hotly contested Presidential cauvasa followed, and the American people have pronounced almost unanimously in favor of the measures and prin ciples enunciated at Balliume, and in favor of Mr. Lincoln as the representative of those principles. The Administration of Mr Liucoln had been fiercely assailed and denounced by the opposition, and when a presidential election offered them the opportunity of appeal to the people for a verdict of incompetency against him, they quickly seized upon it, and on the 8th of November the sovereign jurors met and under the following general heads. 1st, That Abraham Lincoln shall be President of the United States for another 2d, That this great rebellion must be decision, as we interpret it, is embraced crushed out by force of arms, and the integrity of the Union preserved. 3d, That the institution of Slavery shall be forever abolished from American coil and its re-establishment prohibited by constitutional provision.

This is what the people decided upon and what they expect the Administration to consumate. Now, the question is, to what extent are our late opponents ready to unite with the authorities in carrying out the wishes of the people? So unanimous has this verdict been, and the issues of the canvass were so clearly defined, that any opposition to them now must be regarded as factions and ill-natured. Will the supporters of General McClellan heed this authoritative voice of the savereign people which they profess to hold in traditional regard, and cease at once their opposition to the war measures of the Administration which the people have so emphatically endoused? We sincerely hope they may be induced to adopt this patriotic course. It seems to us that this is now the only honorable road left open for them to parsue. We are not among those whose partizan bigotty and prejudice lead them to believe that every man who voted for General McClellan is therefore a rascal, but we do think that it is now high time for the honest men of the democratic party to purge it of its traitor support of the government. Our interests are identical. One member cannot suffer without the others suffer with it. They have as great a stake in the success of these free institutions that bless all, as any man can have who voted for Mr. Lincoln. The strongest motive for the rebels to hold out, has been a belief that a powerful parby at the North would rise up and demand immediate peace. The late election has eradicated every vestige of that hope, prosecution of the war it will be better, in new recruits sent to Grant or Sherman, soon as the infatuated and treason-sick pro-

Neither have they been that out from the honors and emoluments of office, but many gentlemen are now noempying high positions under the present Administration who strenuously opposeds Mr. Lincoln's election the first time. No man who has honestly supported the govarnment, has been asked a single question as to his past political autecedents or preferences, but all such have been warmly welcomed in the good work.

There are a great many other considerations that might properly be urged in support of a more perfect union among all parties, until this cruel war is over. but time and space forbid. If our opponeats are not awayed entirely by passion they must now see that it is their duty to ubey this unmistakable voice of the people. "Yoxpopuli, vox Del."

Shall Wallave Peace? Now that the Bresidential election is over and past and there, being no longer may good reasons that the animosities which it engendered should be continued, the more sober minded of both political parties are easting about them for those things that make for peace. The Union convention met at. Baltimore on the 7th of June last, and nominated Mr. Lincoln upup a platform which seemed to the delegates composing that convention, to be eminently sound and patriotic, and well suit ed to meet the exigencies of these truly perilous times. On the 29th of August, the democratic convention was held in Chieago, and General McClellan placed upon a platform which was believed to, contain the practical wisdom needed to carry the ship of state away from the rocks and shouls that threaten her with destruction. out into the open sea of national peace and prosperity. A hotly contested Presidential canvass followed, and the American people liave pronounced almost unanimously in favor of the measures and principles enunciated at Bablimore, and in daver of Mr. Lincoln as the representative of those principles. The Administration of Mr Lincoln had been floreely assailed and denounced by the opposition, and when a presidential election offered them the opportunity of appeal to the people for a verdiet of incompetency against him, they quickly seized upon it, and on the Sth of November the sovereign jurors met and rendered their decision. What that verdict is we all learned somedays ago. The decision, as we interpret it, is embraced under the following general heads.

1st, That Abraham Lincoln shall be President of the United States for another-2d, That this great rebellion must be crushed out by force of arms, and the intagrity of the Union preserved: 3d, That the institution of Slavery shall be forever abolished from American soil and its re-establishment prohibited by constitutional provision.

This is what the people decided upon and whatthey expect the Administration to consumate. Now, the question is, to what extent are our late opponents ready out the wishes of the people? So unanimous has this verdict been, and the issues of the canvass were so clearly defined, that any opposition to them now must be rethis authoritative voice of the sovereign people which they profess to hold in the Administration which the people have hope they may be induced to adopt this misery of the trip. patriotic course. It seems to us that this is now the only honorable road left open for them to pursue. We are not among diec lead them to believe that every man who voted for General McClellan is therefore a rescal, but we do think that it is now high time for the honest men of the democratic party to purge it of its traitor these free institutions that bless all, as any man can have who voted for Mr. Lincoln. The strongest motive for the rebels to hold: out, has been a belief that a powerful party at the North would rise up and demand eradicated every vestige of that hope. If the Democratic party that dreads the draft so much, will now go in for a vigorous prosecution of the war it will be better, in its effect upon the robellion, than 100,000 new recruits sent to Grant or Sherman. That beace that we all covet so much and which is the burden of every honest prayer that ascends to the throne of the Almighty, will come quickly and "come to stay," as soon as the infutuated and treason-sick people of the South are thoroughly convinced Northern people who sympathize with them in any way. The Republican party have repeatedly made concessions to their opponents for the sake of harmony and with the hope of a more perfect union for the public good. They have abandoned their distinctive party name, the one under which they won the victory of 1860, and have adopted the broader and more catholic name of Unionists, under which banner every loyal man can callet. Neither have they been shut out from the honors and emoluments of office, but many gentlemen are now occupying high positions under the present Administration who strengously opposed: Mr. Lincoln's election the first time. No man who has honestly supported the government, has been asked a single question as to his past political antecedents or preferences, but all such have been warmly welcomed in the good work.

There are a great many other considerations that might properly be urged in apport of a more perfect union among all parties, until this cruel war is over. but time and space forbid. If our opponents are not awayed entirely by passion. they must now see that it is their duty to aboy this unmistakable voice of the people. "Voxpopuli, vox Dei."

An emencipation movement in Cubs looks to the gradual abolition of slavery. all persons born of servile parents, after she first of next January, are to become free at the age of twenty-four, and to be paid for their labor after reaching the age of twenty, at the rate of $102 per sunum. for four years.

A. Move of the Right Sort.

We have the agreeable intelligence from New York that a movement is on foot among the prominent Democrats in that city to get up a meeting in Tammany Hall to pronounce in favor of the most vigorous prosecution of the war. Among other influential Democrats engaged in the movement is mentioned the name of Hon, Amasa J. Parker, recontly commissioned by Governor Seymour to represent the State of New York in the matter of the disregard of her statute laws by military tribunal in Washington, Judge: Parker is one of the ablest and best men, as well as one of the best Democrat in the nation. This movement is of the right kind, and: we shall rejoice to see it carried out with success. The true Democratic policy is the prosecution of the war against all ene mies in arms against the nation, with all the vigor and all the means which the gov ernment can command, until the rehels shall lay down their arms and yield obedience to the authority of the constitution. This is the doctrine the Post has always advocated, and will continue to advocate Had some of the critics of the Post, who call themselves Democrats, been in fayor of prosecuting the war against rebels with one half the vigor with which in secret or-Sult of the recent election would have been would now probably beengaged in writing

We trust the movement in New York will proceed, and would suggest to leading Democrats in Chicago and Illinois that ment in the same direction. What say Judge Caton, Senator Richardson, Hon. I. M. Morris, Gen. McClernard, Hon. An-Hoyne, and other "old liners?" Shall the Democracy be purified and put upon the right course, or shall the "Sons of Liberty" and other sons of guns be permitted still to run the machine which they have

Have you forgotten them? When from all the region about they gathered into the that yawned like the main entrance of Avernus! How the sleigh bells the old fushioned sleigh bells, big in the middle of the string, and growing small by degrees and beautifully less, toward the broad brans backle-chimed in every direction long before night—the gathering of the clans. There came one school, "the Master," - give him a capital M, for he is entitled to Master and all bundled into one huge, red, double sleigh, strewn with an abundance of straw and tucked up like a Christmas pie, with a half score of buffulo robes. ! There half a dozen cutters, each with a young man-and maiden, they two and no And there again a pair of jumpers, mounting a great outlandish looking bin, heaped up, pressed down and running over Scripture measure; with a small collection of humanity; picked up en route, from a dozen homes, and all as merry as kittens in a basket of wool. And the bright eyes, ripe red lips, that one caught glimpse of beneath those pink-lined quilted hoods, and the silvery laugh that escaped the mufflers and fur tippets they wore then-who does not remember? can ever forget them.

: The school house destined to be the arena for the conflict, has been swept and garnished boughs of evergreen adorn the smoke-stained and battered walls. pellets of chewed paper have all been wept down from the ceiling, and two pails spring, and set on a boach in the entry, with the immemorial tin cun—a wise pro vision; indeed, for warm is that spelling!

The big boys have fanned and replenished the fire, till the old chimney fairly jars with the roaring flumes, and the sparks fly out of the top, like a furnace, the oriflammi of the battle.

The natural religion that I mean is referred to in the sixty-finh Psalm. The old Hubrews, halficivilized as they were, if not rather; half-savage, were wiser in this thing than we. To them it was the voice of the Lord that broke the cedars of Lebanon, "It was the Lord that sat upon the flood. They saw his mercy in the heavens and his faithfulness reaching unto the clouds. It was he who prepared rain for the earth, and made the grass to grow upon the mountains, who gave to the beast his food and to the young ravens which cried, who filled them with the finest wheat, equitered the hour fro t like ashes, called forth his ice like morsels, caused his wind to blow and the waters to flow, brought out the hosts of the store by number, and called them all by name. Wellwill it be for us when the unlearned seek wisdom, and the learned humility; when the fool on the one side and the philosopher on the other, -the child in knowledge and he that is a hundred years old, -shall alike call not only upon his angels to praise the Lord, but "Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise ye him, all vastars of light - Praise him, yo heaven of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens. Fire, and hail; snow, and vapor; stormy wind, fulfilling his word; mountains and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars; beasts, and all cattle; creeping things, and flying fowl; praise the name of the Lord: for he commanded, and they were created. His name alone is excellent; his glory is above the earth

THE COSPELS HARMOSTOUS -The sinwhich the four gospels furnish, is presented under the different aspects of four widely differing and typically significant individual views. This fourfold reflection ed askance, presents a thousand dazzling vision, while a direct view of the four reflections show but one light. In this respect it may be affirmed, that the mutual relations of the four gospels more excites and evokes the criticism of the human mind than anything else, and at the same false criticism. Who would undertake to harmonize the results of modern criticism ? A harmony which should seek to bring these critics into accordance with each other, would find a thousand times more difficulties than those harmonies which seek to reconcile the discrepancies be tween the several gospels.

POLET ARTICLES BRUSHES,

THE GOSPELS / HARMONIOUS .- The sin gle history of the life of the Lord Jesus which the four gospels furnish, is presen-ted under the different aspects of four widely differing and typically significant individual views. This fourfold reflection of the one light of the world, when viewed askance, presents a thousand dazzling reflected lights, completely confusing the vision, while a direct view of the four reflections show but one light. In this respect it may be affirmed, that the mutual relations of the four gospels more excites and evokes the criticism of the human mind than anything else, and at the same-time becomes itself the criticism of all false criticism. Who would undertake to harmonize the results of modern criticism? A harmony which should seek to bring these critics into accordance with each other, would find a thousand times more difficulties than those harmonies which seek to reconcile the discrepancies be tween the several gospels.

"Ir is finished." We are ever taking-leave of something that will not come back again. We let go, with a pang, after portion of our existence. dreary we may have felt life to be here, yet when that hour comes,—the winding of all things, the last grand rush of darkness on our spirits; the hour of that awful, sudden wrench from all we have kupyn or loved, the long farewell to sun, moon, stars, and light,—I ask you what will then be finished, what will it be? Will it be the butterfly existence of pleasure, the mere life of uninterrupted sin and selfish gratification; or will it be "Father. I have finished the work which Thou gavest me to do "-Roberlson's Sermons, FIVE KINDS OF CONSCIENCES.—There be Live kinds of consciences on foot in the world; first an ignorant conscience, which neither sees nor sayeth anything, , wither beholds the sins in a soul, nor reprove thein; Secondly, the flattering consciences, whose speech is worse than silence itself, which, though seeing sine soothes mad in the committing thereof. Thirdly, sacred conscience, which has neither sight, speech nor sense in men that are past feeling. Fourthly, a wounded conscience frightened with sin. The last and best is a quiet, and clear conscience, pacified in Christ Jesus. Of these the fourth is incomparably better than the three former. so that a wise man would not take a world to change them. Yea, a wounded conscience is rather painful than sinful. an affliction, no offense, and is in the ready way, at the next-remove, to be turned into a quiet conscience. - Thomas Fuller.

Washington, Jan. 1st, 1864. Washington, Jan. 1st, 1861.

Gentlemen: —Having stated it verbally to you, I have no healtation in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoodand's German Bitters. During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his sivice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular helief iso much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.

Truly your friend, THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

From John B. Withersham, Esq. firm of Withersham and Hutchinson, the celebrated manufacturers of Fancy Iron Works, 269 Canni street:

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz., that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarries.

During the long time I was suffering from this dis-case, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Boodland's German Hitters. After the use of a few lottles of that valuable medi-cine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradi-

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable spe-lific, and, when I have an opportunity, cheerfully re-commend it, with full confidence in its reliability. Truly yours, JOHN B. WITHERSHAM, New York, Feb. 2, 1864.

From Julius Loc, Esq. firm of Lee & Walker, the most extensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. February 8th, 1864.

Mairs, Jones & Koms-Gentlemen: My mother in-law has been so groatly benefitted by your Hoofiand's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are authoring from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most chatlante formflatuleuce—for many yours, and your fletters has given use ease when everything else had failed JULIUS LEP. From the Hon. Jacob Broom.

PRILADELPHIA, Oct. 7th, 15C. Gentlemen:—In reply to your inquiry as to the ef-fect produced by the use of itoofisme's terman litters in my family, I have no hositation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dispersia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided ratiof the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it, I find it to be an unequifed tonic and sincerely recommend its use to the afferers.

Truly yours, JACOB BROOM, 1707 Spruce.

From Rev. W. D. Seigfried, Pastor of the PHILADELPHIA, December 26th, 1863. Menra Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigeation, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by triends, and some of them tested but without relief. Your Hoodand's terman Bitters were recommended by presumerous who had tried them, and whose feverable by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medi-dues, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters," whose only aim seems to be to palm on sweetened and whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action not only upon the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and graifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles.

Very respectfully yours, W. D. SEIGRIED, No. 254 Shackamaxon Street.

From the Rev. Thos. Winter, D. D., Paste of Roxbury Baptist Church:

1 Dr. Jackson—Dear Ser: I feel it due to your excelent preparation, Hoofland's German Blitters, to add ray feelimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German litters. I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been very materially benefitted. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.

Respectfully yours,

E. WINTER,

By another ngenious l'atent improvement,

The Needle Cannot be Set Wrong, Thus avoiding the great trouble of other machines. In this it is so easy that a child may set it in the dark with unerring correctness every time.

NO BREAKING OF NEEDLES. The blade of the needle is less than 3% of an Inch long and is straight. It is less than half the length of other machine needles, many of which are curved, there fore more easily bentur broken—a great source of an noyance, expense and trouble. The Hemmer and Fell er can never be set wrong. Any one may adjust them in the dark. The hem may be of any width. No other hemmer or feller is like this. It turns the hem ou the right or upper side, as you want it. IT WILL NOT DROP STITCHES: As the needle is always set right, the blade short and straight does not vibrate, like longer ones.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine Is run by steam at 4000 stitches per minute—other machines only at 400 to 1200, with safety. They are manufactured with MATHEMATICAL PRECISION, Hence each part is interchangeable, and can be readily placed in case of accident. THEY WILL NOT GET OUT OF ORDER We have known it intimately for several years. During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and one overduties nearly prostrated me. A kind ang ang one rous units nearly provinted ms. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have passed. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief is o much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they dealer to be.

Truly your friend, "THOMAS B. PLORENCE."

From John B. Withersham, Esq., flrm of Withersham and Mutchinson, the celebrated manufacturers of Fancy Iron Works, 259 Canol arrest:

I am the rectpient from you of one of the greatest favors that one be conferred upon man, viz, that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human lamily can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhoss. Diarrhous.

During the long time I was suffering from this dissee, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The, cause seemed to remain until I was laduced to try Hooflund's German Bitters.

lafter the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated.

Sewing Machines.

WILCOX & GIBBS

SEWING MACHINE Will Stitch, Hem, Fell, Tack, Cord, Bind, Braid, Collis and Embroider beautifully. It will, with the finest needle and thread, run from perfect work on the dinest Nainsook, over the heaviest beaver cloth and cowhide, with no change of needle, thread or tension. Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine will one coarse cotton. Ruen, silk and twine. It runs easier, faster and stiller than any other machine. I forms a flat, even and elastic seam, differing from ever other stitch, each loop being turisted by means of the "ROTATING HOOK," and drawing the twist into the goods, thus securely featening every stitch, as that the assumistible bear to be cut at frequent intervals, but in that case even, the seam is warranted for to any in that case even, the seam is warranted for to any in west; and under all circumstance to "survive the scalable". Old worn out family gurments, becomes, pants, dresses, Ac., have been submitted to Committees at Fairs where was the greatest conjection, and to TRIS STICIT premiums have been awarded for its superioxity, burability, electrical and states. REACTY.

A Patented Device prevents the possibility of the ma chine bringman in the wrong: direction, or the bulance wheel ever wearing or touching the dress. By snothe ingenious Patent improvement, The Needle Cannot be Set Wrong, Thus avoiding the great trouble of other machines. In this it is so easy that a child may set it in the dark with unsering correctness every time. NO BREAKING OF NEEDLES. The blade of the needic is less than % of an inch long, and is straight. It is less than half the length of other machine needles, many of, which are curved, therefore more easily bentor broken—a great source of annoyance; expense and trouble. The Hemmer and Feller can never be set wrong. Any one may adjust them in the dark. The hem may be of any width. No, other hemmer or feller is like this. It turns the hem on the right or none side as you want it.

IT WILL NOT DROP STITCHES: Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine

right or upper side, as you want it. .

Is run by steam at 4000 stitches per minute—other machines only at 400 to 1200, with entery. They are manufactured with MATHEMATICAL PRECISION, Hence each part is interchangeable, and can be readily placed in case of accident.

THEY WILL NOT ORT- JOUR OF ORDER We have known it intimately for several years. Many thousands are already in use here, and so far as we know, not one in family use here ever cost a dime to re-pair, or ever been out of order at all. They will last generation, if properly cared for. Non-ised it can be persuaded to use any other.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine Works at an instant's notice, and never stops "unacconnected. Not one operator in ten on the Wilcox & Gibbs will break a needle or drop a stitch in a year. The Wilcox & Gibbs in the hands of any one, knows no "skips," "drops," "jdmps" or "misses,". The roundness, ovenness, darability and beauty of its stirch

WERE NEVER EQUALED.

Its rapidity, absolute stillness, case of motion, narrowness and neatness of its Hem and field were never approached by any other machine. We can call in any boy or girl from the street, and with three minutes instruction they will set the needle, attach ho Hemmer, or Feller, and do the work with entire success. A blind girl, with the exception of threading the needle, can do the same. Many ladies owning other first-class machines, come to one office to do their fine immning and feiling on the Wilcox & Gibbs Muchine.

The press universally pronunce this the first family sowing machine in the world.

We are General Agents for
